- Accommodation

- Airbnb:

Renting out a villa is undoubtedly the best option in Bali. It often comes with better amenities and unique location when compared to hotels. The only caveat being it makes sense to book one when traveling in groups of 8-12 (makes the total cost sensible on twin sharing basis).

Here are a couple of choices we made for our trip:

--- Villa Amanie (10 Pax) - <http://trix.ws/6hndS>

INR 15000, i.e. INR 1500/person/day

--- Aurora Villa (10 Pax) - <http://trix.ws/GaFzk>

INR 22000, i.e. INR 2200/person/day

--- Villa Shaman (14 Pax) - <http://trix.ws/nhM7j>

INR 21500, i.e. INR 1535/person/day

- Hotels:

There are quite a few hotels in Bali. You have options from all major hoteliers (Hilton, Marriott, SPG, etc.). Prices start from around $20 per night and can go upwards of couple hundred dollars.

The average price of a hotel room on twin sharing basis (4 Star & above) is approx. INR 1000/person/day

(please note that it is advisable to make hotel reservations a few weeks in advance as trends suggest hike in rates closer to travel dates.)

- Sightseeing

The list can go on for long when it comes to points of interests in and around Bali. But here are the top points of interest covered in the itinerary

- Day 1: Ubud, Bali Swing, Mount Batur & Tirta Empul

This is more or less a full day trip (10 hours) and it starts out early with hotel pick-up (8AM) and drop off.

Avg package cost: IDR 500K-600K (upto 6 people), i.e. INR 450/person (exclusions entrance fees, food, additional stops)

- Day 2: Bedugul & Tanah Lot Sunset Tour (8 hours)
The trip includes a visit to the huge state temple of Pura Taman; up next a visit to the country side of Ulun Danu. This is followed by the renowned monkey forest and finally you witness the sun set at the Tanah Lot temple.
Avg package cost: IDR 500K-600K (upto 4 people), i.e. INR 600/person (exclusions entrance fees, food, additional stops)
- Day 3: Kintamani and Besakih Tour (8 hours)
The highlights of this tour include a visit to the famous Besaikh Temple, scaling the Kintamani to take in spectacular views of the Batur volcano and a visit to the ancient courthouse, Kertha Gosa Pavilion.
Avg package cost: IDR 800K-900K (upto 6 people), i.e. INR 800/person (exclusions entrance fees, food, additional stops)
- Day 4: Nusa Penida Island (8 hours)
Nusa Penida is by far the highlight across all my trips to Bali. The island is sheer beauty and its pristine nature and inaccessibility is what makes it so unique. The island is not yet entirely commercialized for the tourists and this means only the most adventurous of folks come visit this place. Read my complete blog post on Bali to discover what the island has in store for you.
Avg package cost:
IDR 380K/pax (grp of 8) for speedboat roundtrip, i.e. INR 1680/person + IDR 500K (upto 8) for guide and car hire, i.e. INR 300/person
- Day 5-6: Gili Trawangan Island (1 Day)
Gili Trawangan is one of the most famous party islands in the region complete with some of the wildest bars and restaurants. Jiggy Boat Party is one of the most popular party in the island cluster.
Avg package cost:
IDR 380K/pax (Patagonia Xpress) for speedboat roundtrip, i.e. INR 1680/person
+ Jiggy Boat Party tickets at USD 19 (INR 1200) for Girls, USD 26 (INR 1700) for Boys
+ Accommodation (Avg. IDR 600K on twin sharing)
i.e. INR 1500/person
- Day 6-7: Bali (free time)
After an overnight stay & party at the Gili Islands, you return to Bali and spend the evening with a bit of shopping or pub-hopping (Sky Garden is a pretty hot spot in the city).
Most flights out to India leave around mid-day which give you enough time to wake up leisurely, check-out and head to the airport.
